Threat of Trap For A Big Allied Force

Still In Hopes of Solution

British Anxious Korean Crisis Be Ended on Political Lines

LONDON, Nov. 29—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today Britain still hopes a settlement on "political lines" will end the threat of a third world war over Korea.

"If the Chinese want to avoid general war and if they show the slightest signs of willingness to cooperate in exploring a solution by peaceful means," the foreign secretary said, "I am satisfied a solution can be found."

Bevin told the House of Commons at the beginning of a two-day debate on foreign affairs that the recent surge of Red Chinese forces into the Korean fighting "has not altered my opinion one bit."

"It is on political lines that in the end we must seek the solution," he declared.

"I have been in touch with the U.S. government in the last 24 hours and the U.S. government has reaffirmed that their purpose in Korea remains the same as our own: Namely to resist aggression, to localize hostilities and to settle the Korean problem on a basis satisfactory to the United Nations."

Bevin said he did not pretend to know the Communist Chinese motive in Korea—whether to safeguard their own interests or from some "imaginary fear" or for purpose "of a grand strategy for a bigger purpose."

Consider Conspiracy

"Is there a Russian-Chinese conspiracy on a world-wide scale?" he asked.

Bevin spoke after Prime Minister Attlee and his cabinet had met in an emergency session this morning.

Newspapers here and on the continent voiced serious forebodings over the Korean developments.

Winston Churchill, Britain's world war two prime minister, recently has warned western nations against becoming too deeply involved in the Far East. He has contended that the big Communist threat is in Europe.

Called on Short Notice

The government ministers were called together on short notice after Bevin had talked last night with Julius Holmes, minister of the U.S. embassy.

Informed sources reported that Attlee and Bevin saw Holmes together and handed him a written questionnaire which called for specific answers on a number of questions relating to the Korean crisis.

Holmes, the sources said, produced the answers after consulting with Washington, for the cabinet meeting this morning.

Possibly Saved From a Trap

By Don Huth

U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Nov. 29—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker said in a statement tonight "the assault launched by the Eighth Army five days ago probably saved our forces from a trap which might well have destroyed them."

The Eighth Army chief returned from Tokyo where he and Maj. Gen. Edward Almond, commander of the 10th Corps, were summoned Tuesday night for an urgent conference with General MacArthur.

MacArthur made a statement similar to Walker's in a special communique yesterday.

Name Parade Queen Tonight

A special committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet tonight to make a final decision on naming the queen to reign over the huge Christmas parade which will begin promptly at 2 p.m. on Friday. Entries have been received from high schools throughout the area. In addition to the queen there will be four princesses chosen to attend the queen. They will ride with Miss Christmas on the beautiful flowered queen float.

Thursday's Democrat will carry a complete line-up for the entire parade. Late entries have brought the total number of floats to over 40.

Valuation of State Fair at $2,168,700

State Properties Estimated Worth $610,,640,075

JEFFERSON CITY, Nov. 29—(AP)—Missouri's sprawling state government now owns property worth an estimated $610,640,075. That's almost $200,000,,000 more than the total of $431,,503,473 ten years ago.

The big and growing inventory was compiled by state comptroller E. L. Pigg and Fred E. Appleton, state director of public buildings. Pigg said it was the most complete survey of state property ever made.

"And," he said, "the figures are conservative."

The inventory puts a value of $576,847,383 on state land and buildings, both in Jefferson City and at institutions over the state. Other property is estimated at $33,792,692.

Land and buildings have increased the most in value during the last ten years — $164,231,782.

Biggest single institution is the University of Missouri at Columbia with an estimated value of $33,768,128. But the state's biggest investment is in roads and bridges. Their construction cost totaled $436,437,750.

Another $143,574,376 has been

Traffic Plans For Parade Day

Chief of Police Edgar C. Neighbors stated today that his department is making every effort to cooperate with the Jaycees in looking after the crowd expected in Sedalia Friday afternoon to see the Christmas parade.

It is his plan to clear Ohio avenue of cars from Broadway to Main street and to have no cars parked on Ohio in this area after 12:00 o'clock. This will afford plenty of space for crowds to stand on the sidewalk and see the passing parade.

Every officer on the force, as well as some auxiliary officers, will be on duty he stated today.

To Ask Change In Draft Law

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—A member of the Senate Armed Services committee said today it appears certain Congress will be asked to change the draft law so as to get more manpower into the armed services.

This Senator, who asked not to be identified by name, told that to a reporter after the committee had discussed the Korean situation behind closed doors with Defense Department officials.

Only men aged 19 to 26 are now being drafted.

There was no hint what changes are under consideration.

Living Cost Index Reaches All-Time High

Nearly a Million Workers to Receive Pay Increase

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—The government's cost of living index today rose to a new all-time high. Nearly a million workers whose wage contracts are tied to the rise and fall of the index will receive a pay hike of two to three cents an hour.

The new index, covering prices as of Oct. 15, was 174.8 per cent of the 1935-39 base period, an increase of 0.6 per cent since Sept. 15.

It was 0.2 per cent higher than the previous peak of 174.5 in August and September, 1948.

General Motors Corp, first of the major auto manufacturers to adopt the cost of living formula for its workers, announced immediately 357,000 hourly-rated workers will receive an additional three cents an hour. The boost will be effective with the first pay period beginning after Dec. 1.

Be Paid in March

Approximately 80,000 GM salaried workers will receive an additional $15 as their allowance for the period between Dec. 1 and next March 1, to be paid at the close of the quarter next March.

Says Oil Man Lost $800,000

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—A wealthy oil man named Sinclair dropped $800,000 in a swanky Dade county (Fla.) casino but was allowed to settle his debt for $500,000, Senate crime investigators have been told.

The testimony was given yesterday by George Patton, a former Miami, Fla., deputy sheriff, at a hearing in which he described gamblers' payoffs for protection in the Florida gold coast area.

The Senate crime investigating committee made public a statement Patton had given to its investigators in advance of the public hearing.

In this statement, Patton said today that "Harry S. or Harry F. Sinclair, the wealthy oil man," lost $800,000 in two nights at the Golden Shores club, which he described as a gambling casino.

Under questioning at the hearing, however, Patton said he could not recall Sinclair's first name but said he was a big oil man.

Acheson to Speak On Korea Crisis

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson will speak to the nation at 8 p.m. tonight (CST) on the crisis in Korea.

The State Department announced that the secretary's 30-minute address will be broadcast by the Mutual, ABC and CBS networks. Acheson will speak from his office in the State Department.

Aides said Acheson's address would deal with Korea and the general world situation and would include a plea for American unity

One official said about half the speech would be devoted to answering the question: "Where do we go from here?"

Acheson originally had made an engagement to address the National Council of Churches of Christ, meeting in Cleveland, tonight.

Because of the Korean crisis, he cancelled plans to go to Cleveland but arranged to speak to the gathering there by telephone.

Aides said Acheson had now decided to broaden the speech into a general message by radio to the American people.

MacArthur Hope Was That The War Would End Soon

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—What did Gen. Douglas MacArthur mean in his home-by-Christmas remarks last week?

Nothing more than a light comment that expressed everybody's hope the Korean fighting would end soon, MacArthur said in a message received at the Pentagon.

Ray Henle, Washington radio commentator, cabled Gen. MacArthur for the explanation and said he received this reply:

"In reply to questions contained in your cable of Nov. 28, apparently greatly exaggerated statements have been attributed to some informal comments passed between my field commanders and myself in a jocular vein expressive of the universal hope for an early termination of hostilities.

"The evident physical impossibility of fulfillment of the statement attributed to me should be its own best refutation.

"At no time have I ever attempted to predict the course or termination of this or any other military campaign."

Relman Morin, AP correspondent at Tokyo, mentioned the statement in a dispatch Monday. He said MacArthur made it Friday

Talk on India To Club Tonight

Miss Burn-Perry

At the Sedalia Knife and Fork club dinner meeting tonight, the part which India and its women of today will play in the world of tomorrow will be discussed by Miss Nilima Burn-Perry who was the confidential secretary to the commanding officer of the first U.S. Army in Calcutta during World War II. Miss Burn-Perry, whose mother was Hindu and father a Scot, discusses this matter thoroughly and frankly from the viewpoint of a modern, well-educated Hindu woman, who was born in Calcutta. She will speak following the dinner which starts at 7:00 o'clock tonight in the Ambassador room, Hotel Bothwell.

Safety For The City Schools

Inspection Made Of Them by Fire Chief John Lueck

The Sedalia public schools have undergone a complete and thorough inspection by Fire Chief John G. Lueck during the past several days and a report has been given to Heber U. Hunt, superintendent of schools, with recommendations.

Fire Chief Lueck in his report said he had found nothing of any serious nature since the remodeling of several schools and in accordance with work being done at the present time. Several minor infractions were found and these are being corrected.

At one school where a cafeteria and a class room are located in the basement, Chief Lueck recommended additional exits, especially where there are so many children.

All of the schools in Sedalia in the past several months have been remodeled, making them practically fire-proof. Outside fire escapes have been added to several where they were necessary, and which had been previously suggested. The arrangements now make all buildings very safe on the part of all school children.

The suggestion of additional exits have been recommended and will be presented to the school board for their approval, after which work will start to comply with the recommendations of the fire chief.

Youth Fails as Check Passer

A youth who tried to pass a check at the Otterville Bank, but failed when an employee recognized him as not being the person for whom the check was written, was picked up in Sedalia later by State Trooper Pete Stohr. He had just made a purchase at the J. C. Penney Co., store and gave a check for $35.00 and received the change when the trooper arrived.

The change and merchandise was returned to the store employee before the youth was taken away.

Tuesday evening he was charged with forgery and is being held in the county jail pending arraignment before Acting Magistrate John C. McCloskey. The youth was identified as Russell Lee Merriott, 17, Versailles, and the name appearing on the check was that of Jim Hutchinson on the Bank of Latham.

According to Trooper Stohr the youth left the bank and started to hitch-hike a ride and was picked up and brought into Sedalia. The license on the car was obtained and the driver contacted in Sedalia by Trooper Stohr and the two started around town looking for the youth.

A few minutes later they found him at the J. C. Penney Co. store.

No Jaycee Meeting Thursday

The Junior Chamber of Commerce will not meet Thursday night as planned. The next regular meeting will be December 7.

Three Killed by High Voltage

GREAT BEND, Kas., Nov. 29—(AP)—Three men were dead today, victims of a high voltage line which fell to the ground after hunters apparently had shot the insulators off the cross arm of a power pole.

They were Alfred F. Jacka, 52, Barton county sheriff-elect, George Winn, 43, a plumber's helper, and J. W. Murphy, farmer.

Murphy lost his life while searching for Winn, who had been missing since Monday night. Jacka, an undersheriff under Sheriff A. W. Werhman, was killed when he went out to look for the other two men.

All were victims of a 12,000-volt REA line which had fallen to the ground about two miles south of Great Bend.

'Not Aware' of Pumice Plan

Denial Made of Investment Deal With Binaggio

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 29—(AP)—Blevins Davis, theatrical producer and close friend of President Truman, says neither he nor his associates in a pumice business were aware that Charles Binaggio sought to invest in their firm.

The Kansas City Star said yesterday that Binaggio, slain Kansas City political leader, was preparing to buy an interest in the Superlite Materials Corporation shortly before his assassination April 5.

D. F. Wallace, President Truman's brother-in-law, is treasurer of the firm—a New Mexico pumice building block organization. The president is Roy L. Cook, former Albuquerque postmaster.

Any implication that those "of us associated in the company—Fred Wallace, Roy Cook or myself—were dealing with Binaggio is a gross misrepresentation," Davis said.

The star's story, under the byline of Jack Swift, said Clyde Lockwood acted as Binaggio's agent and that the slain Democratic faction leader was seeking to put as much as $200,000 in the business.

Lockwood last spring was sales representative in Kansas City for the General Pumice Corporation.

Davis declared he never has seen Lockwood and neither Wallace nor Cook knew Lockwood was a Binaggio agent.

Wallace Approached

In Albuquerque, Wallace said he was approached by Lockwood last spring but "I did not know he was connected with Binaggio. He never mentioned Binaggio."

Cook said he never heard of Binaggio until he read about his death.

Binaggio and his henchmen, Charles Gargotta, were shot to death in the Kansas City northside Democratic headquarters. Their murders never have been solved.

In the Star story Swift, a Star staff member, who has been touring the west with the Kefauver crime investigating committee, said the firm was founded in 1949 by Davis and Dennis Chavez, Jr., son of the New Mexico Senator.

Wallace declared that if that is correct, he had never heard of it.

"Chavez is not connected with the firm now. Davis is the man

To Nashville in Kidnap Case

MARLIN, Tex., Nov. 29—(AP)—Ienzy Delton, 24-year-old soldier of Steele, Mo., was removed from jail yesterday by a United States marshal who said he was taking him to Nashville, Tenn., on a charge of kipnaping.

Gray was arrested at Fort Hood, Tex., in October by Deputy United States Marshal T. P. McNamara.

McNamara said Gray and Edward L. Himes, 33, were charged in the kidnaping of Charles Burkhardt, 49, and his wife, 42, on Septembebr 14. Himes formerly operated a tourist court in Poplar Bluff, Mo.

Himes was accused of forcing Burkhardt at gun point to travel t. Poplar Bluff in an effort to cancel a civil suit against Himes.

McNamare said Gray was charged with kidnaping and knowingly transporting Burkhardt from Nashville to Poplar Bluff.

Hostetter said Burkhardt and Himes were former partners in a watch repair shop in Nashville and debts involved in the civil suit were incurred when they started to set up a similar shop in Poplar Bluff.

Osteopaths May Use Drugs

Ruling is Made By Judge Blair Of Cole County

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 29—(AP)—Missouri osteopaths won the right today to use drugs and perform surgical operations.

Sam C. Blair, Cole county circuit judge, made the ruling today. It climaxed years of battling by osteopaths to gain the same rights as medical doctors.

The ruling came in a suit brought to test the right of osteopaths to practice at the Audrain county hospital in Mexico, Mo.

Judge Blair held that the key Missouri law was not intended to stop the osteopaths from entering the medical field. Medical doctors had argued osteopaths were limited primarily to manipulative therapy or the adjustment of bodily organs through manual therapy.

"The legislature," Blair said, "in referring to 'osteopathy' as a system, method, or science of treating diseases of the human body as taught at the American school (at Kirksville) did not intend to make the teaching and practicing of the subjects . . . as static or fixed, but dynamic and prospective and intended that the profession could make normal progress and growth. so that new and improved methods could be added when found superior to the old and that the old could be discarded when found to be inferior."

Called Into Case

Judge Blair was called in to hear the case after Audrain county Circuit Judge Frank Hollingsworth disqualified himself. Part of the case was heard in the capital city because repairs were being made at the Audrain county court house.

When osteopaths prescribe drugs or perform surgery with instruments, Blair said, they are "not engaged in the practice of medicine or surgery within the meaning of the medical practice act. . ."

(That is the Missouri law which provides for the medical doctors who opposed the osteopaths in the case.)

"Duly licensed osteopathic physicians in Missouri have the right to use in their practice in treating diseases of the human body, drugs (or medical preparations) and to

Divisions of South Koreans Regrouping

Army Spokesman Says Situation is 'Not Catastrophic'

By C. Yates McDaniel

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—An army spokesman described the situation in Korea today as "serious but not catastrophic" and, striking a note of confidence, said the United States has faced worse "and has come out of it."

He made the statement in cautioning reporters at the Pentagon against "over pessimism."

His assessment came atop earlier assurances to newsmen that high defense officials believe Gen. Douglas MacArthur has enough machines and firepower to prevent a military disaster.

These officials said the United Nations must decide,, however, whether MacArthur will be given sufficient men and the broadened authority he needs to destroy the Chinese Reds in Korea.

The army spokesman reported that the Seventh and Eighth South Korean divisions, which were hard hit by the Chinese Communists, have pulled back and are regrouping.

"They have not lost their organizations and are not destroyed, the officer said. "The fact that they are regrouping and have their organizations would indicate that their losses were not as heavy as initially reported."

"Disregard of Lives"

Explaining why the Chinese have advanced despite U. S. tanks artillery and planes, the spokesman said the answer is the way totalitarian governments use their troops "with utter disregard of human life." He said the Chinese Communist losses undoubtedly have been heavy and added:

"That doesn't perturb them a bit."

Kidnaping of Woman Witness

PLEASANT HILL, Mo., Nov. 29—(AP)—A woman found bound and gagged in her car near here yesterday told the Highway Patrol she was kidnaped by a man who warned her not to appear as a witness in a scheduled divorce suit in Kansas City.

A farmer found Mrs. Mae Ryan, 46, Kansas City, in her car near here, her hands and feet bound with her stockings and surgical tape covering her mouth, nose and eyes.

State Highway Patrolman R. G. Place said the victim related that a Negro man forced his way into her car at a stop sign and warned her not to appear as a witness in a divorce suit set for today.

She told of the man driving several miles, then tying her hands and feet and covering her face with tape.

Place said Mrs. Ryan apparently was unharmed, except for shock.

Mrs. Ryan testified for Mrs. Ora Clayton, Negro, in a preliminary hearing for divorce in Kansas City, June 14. A final hearing was scheduled for today.

Two American Divisions Make Escape Across Chongchon River

SEOUL, Nov. 29—(AP)—Two American divisions escaped south across the icy Chongchon river in northwest Korea today but Chinese Reds swarming through a wide gap threatened to trap a big Allied force.

The Chinese offensive mass of more than 200,000 men was reported using tanks for the first time.

A spokesman at advanced U.S. Eighth Army headquarters said one Communist column had cut within 30 miles of the former Red Korean capital of Pyongyang.

He said the Red force was near Sinchang northeast of the old capital but did not disclose its size.

At least three other Red Chinese columns were reported rolling down through the Tokchon gap in wide sweeps against the Allies' exposed right flank.

This was where Communist attacks earlier had crumpled three South Korean divisions.

Another Chinese force was reported attacking for the first time on the extreme left flank, but the spokesman did not give the location.

A Chinese breakthrough in force to the Yellow sea would seal off large elements of the 110,000-man force fighting for its life in the northwest.

More Pour Across Border

The Chinese Red attack was mounted by 200,000 or more troops with more pouring in steadily from Manchuria.

The spokesman said six Chinese armies now have been identified in Korea. Elements of one Chinese army known to have been in central China a week ago, he said, were attacking the Eighth army's northern front.

The first observed Chinese Red tanks were reported across the Chongchon, rumbling from the west of Kunu, eastern anchor of the shrunken Allied line.

Kunu was the escape gate through which the U. S. 25th and Second division troops poured after crossing the Chongchon. The Reds were attacking from three sides. Kunu's fate was in doubt.

The U. S. 24th division last was reported in the Pakchon area north of the Chongchon, guarding an escape route over the Anju river bridge on the far west or left side of the Allied line.

But the Eighth army spokesman said no enemy contact was made Wednesday in the 24th division sector.

This seemed to indicate that the "large enemy forces" reported hitting the extreme left flank might already be across the Chongchon somewhere near the Yellow sea.

The spokesman described the situation along the Chongchon line as "extremely fluid" and "very obscure."

Millions of Fighting Men From China Expendable

By Dewitt MacKenzie
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

This fresh Chinese aggression in Korea could lead to a major war involving China but it isn't necessarily the forerunner of another world conflict.

Undoubtedly China is acting with the blessings and advice of Moscow. However, Russia has been keeping carefully in the background ever since the Korean upheaval began. Russian-built warplanes and other military equipment have been appearing on the battlefields, but the Muscovites themselves have been standing aside.

The indications have been that Russia desired to avoid another global upheaval at this juncture. And there is no sign that the latest development means any change in her attitude.

It could well be that Moscow would be happy to see the western powers, and especially the United States, become involved in a war with China while Russia sat on the sideline.

Such a conflict would place a terrific strain on American economy and military strength and thus make the USA more vulnerable if and when the world war based on the rise in the cost of living between July 15 and Oct. 15, having agreed with the CIO Auto Workers union to incorporate a new rental adjustment advocated by the bureau of labor statistics in compiling the index.

The case may be different for other workers whose contracts also contain the cost of living formula. In the event their employers do not agree to the rental allowance — amounting to 1.3 percentage points in the index — they will receive only two cents an hour increase. That would be based on the actual rise in the index between July 15 and Oct. 15th.

The figure on July 15 was 172.5 per cent of the 1935-39 period.

BLS reported that the main groups of commodities going into the family budget of moderate income families were higher on the average during October.

The largest increases were reported for house furnishings, which rose 2.3 per cent and apparel which rose 1.5 per cent. The increase of 0.2 per cent in food prices was restrained, the BLS said, by a seasonal decline in the average prices of meats.

On Oct. 15 the food index was 209.0 per cent of the 1935-39 average, 4.2 per cent higher than a year earlier and 2.2 per cent above mid-June, 1950. The food index still was 3.6 per cent below the record high of 216.8 for July 1948.

House Furnishings Up

The rise in the house furnishings index to a new high on Oct. 15 was attributed largely to higher prices for radios, electric refrigerators, wool rugs, living room suites, cook stoves, mattresses, sheets and towels.

The apparel index was at the highest point since March, 1949. Higher prices were reported for a majority of the apparel items, chiefly womens' coats, cotton and rayon dresses, shoes and nylon hose, mens' suits, shoes and undershirts, childrens' shoes and cotton yard goods.

Residential rents rose 0.6 per cent in the three-month period ending Oct. 15. In the 11 cities surveyed in July and October, increases ranged from 0.1 per cent in Buffalo and New York to 1.8 per cent in Savannah. The rental adjustment announced by BLS did not cover new rental units built in 1950. Presumably further allowance might have to be made for those places if they figure in the over-all rental picture.

BLS revised its rent allowance on the grounds that it did not take full account of the rentals on new properties built in recent years and on which no rental ceilings had been placed .

Therefore, BLS corrected its rental index by 1.3 points. A year ago it had adjusted its rent allowance by 0.8 index points and General Motors had agreed to adopt that adjustment at the time. The new adjustment boosts the rent allowance or "bias" another 0.5 index points.

In addition to the rental changes, BLS said there will be other revisions in its index early next year.

These changes, likewise, will have to be approved by the companies and employes whose contracts are geared to the index. The General Motors agreement signed last April continued for five years the cost of living clause which it had inaugurated in 1948.

Other auto makers with similar arrangements include Ford, Packard, Hudson and Studebaker. Their agreements also provide for a cent an hour increase or decrease when there is a 1.14 rise or fall in the BLS index.

Auto Workers Boost

DETROIT, Nov. 29—(AP)—More than 600,000 auto workers got an automatic three-cent hourly pay boost today.

They are employes of 63 producers and suppliers which have cost-of-living wage agreements with the CIO United Auto Workers.

The increase stemmed from a rise in the Bureau of Labor statistics' consumers price index from 172.5 on July 15 to 174.8 by mid-October.

The agreements provide a pay raise or cut of one cent an hour for each rise or fall of 1.14 in this index. This would have given the affected workers only a two-cent raise except for subsequent agreements providing an additional 1.3-point allowance in the index figures to cover rent increases not covered by the index.

The biggest single group of workers whose wages are hitched to the cost of living are 437,000 salaried and hourly rated General Motors employes. Their contract was a pioneer in the industry.

Covered by similar agreements signed since then are 118,000 at Ford, 23,000 at Studebaker, 21,000 at Bendix, 19,000 at Kaiser-Frazer, 8,000 at Packard and thousands at smaller firms.

Millions of Fighting Men From China Expendable

came. So far as China is concerned, her millions of fighting men are expendable.

Right here we shall do well to note that when General MacArthur made his grave announcement that "We face an entirely new war" because of the Chinese invasion of Korea, "We" didn't refer exclusively to the United States. The general was talking about United Nations members other than those of the Communist bloc.

U. S. Carries Major Load

The Korean intervention is a United Nations affair — and let's not forget that item. America is one of this partnership. True, because of her greater resources she is carrying the major load. But this war isn't exclusively her affair.

If this development means the raising of new forces to meet the Red onslaught, they still should be supplied by the United Nations on the basis of "One for all and all for one." The United States shouldn't be expected to carry the sack alone. We advocate bigger and better token forces.

And while we are in a critical mood, there is one other thing I might mention. I heard a disparaging remark yesterday by a foreigner about American conduct of the United Nations campaign in Korea. The critic is the citizen of one of the major powers.

The answer to him is that the people of America would be mighty glad to see his country turn to and contribute something worth while to the U. N. effort in Korea.

But to get back to MacArthur: What is his next move? He has told us bluntly that "this situation, repugnant as it may be, poses issues which must find their solution within the councils of the United Nations and the chancelleries of the world." This is interpreted to mean that if political pressure won't stop the Chinese, then the U. N. forces should be authorized to bomb Red Manchuria where an estimated 300,000 more Chinese troops are held in reserve, ready to be poured over the frontier into Korea.

Undoubtedly the U. N. inclination will be to try political pressure first. But if the Chinese aren't open to reason, then one would expect a strong sentiment in the U. N. for a resort to bombing. This is especially true since other hundreds of thousands of Chinese troops are said to be on their way to Manchuria from China.

The employment of bombs —if the pressure of reason won't work — might avert a major Chinese war.

Chronic Constipation Corrected By Scientific Discovery

At last, after years of Research by Medical Men, in test after test, UNI-LAX a new scientific discovery, produced Amazing Results on patients of all ages suffering from the most Chronic Aggravated Constipation.

Recent Tests Prove

UNI-LAX has given many, blessed relief from the agonies of hard constipated matter that scratched their delicate intestines, caused Piles and even Rupture. Chronic constipation that bloated them up, made them Overweight and sapped their Vitality.

After a few short days, many of them said they felt like new people. A Nun who had been constipated for years said she was now having the most satisfactory bowel movement she could remember.

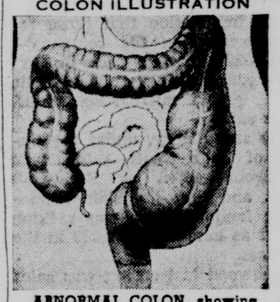
Many people who had been taking "Barreis of Laxatives", (to use their expression) claimed UNI-LAX did them more good than anything they had ever tried.

Other Laxatives

Don't expect UNI-LAX to give you the drastic reaction that ties your Stomach in Knots, gives you Cramps and Diarrhea, leaves your colon Irritated, Exhausted and Inflamed. UNI-LAX is so gentle and safe, it is recommended for people suffering from Piles, Rupture, High Blood Pressure and Rectal Irritations. It is also recommended for children, pregnant and nursing mothers.

UNI-LAX is not designed for the temporary emergency relief offered by harsh purgatives. It is a Scientific Formula in a tasteless tablet that turns into a soft jelly when it reaches the intestines. Because it acts so Naturally, it will take from 2 to 5 days to correct your condition.

COLON ILLUSTRATION



ABNORMAL COLON, showing Atonic Constipation.

100% GUARANTEE

Relief is yours for the asking. If you want healthy regularity, ask your druggist for UNI-LAX today. Use it intelligently and it will give you the most satisfactory bowel function you have had in years.

WE GUARANTEE it to be Non-Toxic, Non Habit Forming and Entirely Harmless.

Church Wedding At Knobnoster

Miss Dorothy Ilene Logsdon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Logsdon, of Knob Noster, and Mr. Ermel Hamilton, of Knob Noster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allard Hamilton, of Charleston, W. Va., were married at 4:00 o'clock Friday afternoon, November 24, at the Knob Noster Baptist church. The Rev. O. A. Blaylosk, of north Knob Noster, read the double ring ceremony, before an altar etting of baskets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Mary V. Hogan, of Knob Noster, played: "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" by Stults, "The Bells of St. Mary's" by Adams, "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, "Noctune" from "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn and the traditional wedding march from Lohengrin as the processional. During the ceremony Miss Hogan played "A Love Dream" by Liszt and following the ceremony she played the recessional from Mendelssohn.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gray gaberdine suit with corsage of white carnations.

Miss Barbara Ann Bragg, of LaPlata, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a fuschia gaberdine suit and her corsage was of sweetpeas.

Mr. Warren Butler, of Knob Noster, served as best man.

Ushers were: Mr. Dean Bragg, of LaPlata, a cousin of the bride, Mr. Wayne Corbett and Mr. Ervin Eugene Benz, of Nnob Noster.

The bride's mother wore a blue flowered dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of sweetpeas.

Mr. James Logsdon, Jr., brother of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride was graduated from the Knob Noster high school in 1950.

Mr. Hamilton is employed with a construction company in Kansas City.

The couple will reside in Knob Noster.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs. Frank McGandy, grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bragg, Dean, Barbara, Laura Belle, Lawrence, Marjorie, Jerry and Janet and Mr. and Mrs. Leland McGandy and children, Marie and Betty Jean, all of LaPlata, Mo.

Former Sedalia Girl Married

Miss Armelia A. Wills, of Worchester, Mass., formerly of route 2, Sedalia, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wills, 1407 East Sixth street, became the bride of Mr. Paul J. Conway of Worcester, Mass., at 11:00 o'clock Saturday morning, Ostober 28, in the Sacret Heart church of Worcester, Mass. The double ring ceremony was read before an tltar settting of flowers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Angus M. Cameron, wore a bridal gown of slipper satin, princess style, with long sleeves forming points over the wrists and lengthening into a cathedral train. Her three tier illusion fingertip veil was attached to a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a prayer book on which were white gardenias.

Mrs. Angus M. Cameron, sister of the bride, wore a gown of dusty rose resigned with princess lines and Miss Barbara Nugant and Mrs. Rita Parker, as bridesmaids, wore taffeta gowns fashioned Martha Wahington style, one in orchid and the other in blue.

Mr. Conway had as his best man his brother, Mr. James Conway and ushers were Mr. Francis Mahoney and Mr. Roy Raymond.

Susann Cameron, three year old niece of the bride was flower girl.

A reception was held at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon in the Community House, Maloney's Field, Worcester and included dancing to a four piece orchestra and a toast to the couple by Mr. Francis Mahoney.

The bride was reared near Sedalia and after finishing Pin Oak school went to Somerville, Mass., to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Angus M. Cameron and Mr. Cameron, who are both also former Sedalians. She attended South Boston high school and was high school concert pianist with the school orchestra. After her graduation from high school she was employed as Machine Shop secretary by the Gillette Razor company of Boston, Mass.

Mr. Conway is a master weaver employed by the Wodall Rug company of Worcester, Mass.

After a wedding trip to New York, Canada and Niagara Falls the couple will return to Worcester where they will be at home at 3 Pitt street, Worcester.

Thanksgiving Day Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Bill D. Patterson, route 1, LaMonte, had as Thanksgiving dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Patterson, Elmer Lee Patterson, Edgbert Means all of LaMonte and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gardner of Sedalia.

Supper Sunday Night

Forrest Patterson, of LaMonte, and A. B. Gardner, of Sedalia, entertained a number of relatives with an oyster supper Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gardner, 1819 South Stewart avenue, in honor of the birthday anniversary of Bill Patterson.

The following were guests: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Patterson, Elmer Lee Patterson, Johnny Greer, all of LaMonte, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gardner and Miss Joyce Ann Witcher.

The evening was spent in playing cards.

A family reunion was held Sunday, November 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Keseman, of Lincoln, when all of Mr. Charles Keseman's children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were together for the first time.

Those present were: Mr. Charles Keseman; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meuschke and son, Jimmie; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Goosen; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Morris, all of Greeley, Colo., who were spending their vacation in Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kreisel and sons, Glen Ray and Tony, of Grandview; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schumacher; Mr. and Mrs. "Happy" Yeager and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kreisler, all of Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Meuschke and sons, Jerry and Gene, of Ionia; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goosen and son, Danny, of Sedalia; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Keuper and son, Larry, and Mr and Mrs. L. C. Keseman and daughter, Pauline, of the home.

A contributed dinner was served at the noon hour. The afternoon was spent in taking pictures, playing cards and in conversation.

Club Plans For Christmas Party

The Better Homes club met November 19 at the home of Mrs. J. V. Kesterson with all the members and their families for a turkey dinner.

The morning was spent in conversation. In the afternoon a short business meeting was held.

The scripture reading was read by Mrs. Walter Eads. One dollar was donated to the Community Chest fund.

The Christmas party will be at the home of Mrs. Ralph Lee on December 6 at which secret pals will be revealed and exchange of Christmas gifts.

Mrs. J. V. Kesterson opened her hostess gifts.

The meeting closed by all repeating the "Lord's Prayer."

Conway Bridal Party

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Conway, center, who were married October 28 in Worcester, Mass. and their wedding party. They are left to right: Susann Cameron, flower girl; Miss Barbara Nugent and Mrs. Rita Parker, bridesmaids; Mrs. Angus Cameron, matron of honor; Mrs. Paul Conway, the bride who was formerly Miss Armelia A. Wills of Sedalia; Mr. Paul Conway, the bridegroom; Mr. Angus Cameron, Mr. James Conway, best man; Mr. Roy Raymond and Mr. Francis Mahoney, ushers.

Pleven Seeks a Confidence Vote

PARIS, Nov. 29—(AP)—Premier Rene Pleven decided today to ask for a vote of confidence in an effort to keep in office France's 16th post-liberation government, tottering from a Communist-brewed storm over Defense Minister Jules Moch.

The national assembly vote, decided on at a cabinet meeting today, will take place Friday. Pleven submitted the cabinet's resignation last night after the national assembly voted disapproval of Moch, but President Vincent Auriol refused to accept the walkout because of the tense international situation.

By seeking a confidence vote, Pleven will try to utilize the desire of most deputies to avoid new general elections, which a government defeat might bring on.

The trouble centers over a scandal the French call the "Affair of the Generals." It involves the theft or sale of a secret military report on the Indo-China war, black market money deals, the honor of a former army chief of staff and a mysterious agent named Roger Peyre who reportedly fled to Brazil last year while Moch, as interior minister, headed the police.

American Legion Post 342 will hold a regular meeting Thursday night, 8:00 p. m., at 114½ East Third street. Commander Everett G. Stumpf. Adjutant Gordon P. Reiniger.

PTA Clears $22.30 With Pie Supper

The Stokley P.T.A. met Friday, November 19, at the school. The meeting was opened by singing "God Bless America." A short business meeting followed. The treasurer reported that the hot lunch booth at the pie supper cleared $22.30. The group voted to have a turkey supper at their December meeting.

During the social hour a mechanical car race was enjoyed by the children and the adults were entertained with a game of "Truth and Consequences" conducted by Mrs. Kermit Stutz.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, coffee and cocoa were served at the close of the evening.

Egypt Recalls An Ambassador

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 29—(AP)—Egypt has recalled its ambassador to Greece in protest against statements attributed to Queen Frederica of Greece concerning a "high Egyptian personality" which appeared last week in Life magazine.

The newspaper Al Misri speculated that political circles might demand a break in diplomatic relations within the next two days "unless Greece takes a decisive step to repair the damage done to Egypt's dignity."

Egypt's acting Foreign Minister Ibrahim Faras said Ambassador Adly Andrawus was due to return from Athens by plane tonight to report on the Greek attitude toward the Life magazine story, which he said thus far was "not clear." Questioned on the possibility of a diplomatic break, Faras said the dispute had "not yet reached this stage."

(Life published an interview with Queen Fredericka by William Atwood in which she was quoted as describing an incident with Egypt's King Farouk in 1941, when Frederica and her husband —then Prince Paul—were living in Egypt in wartime exile. The article said Frederica was sitting in a small Cairo drawing room talking to the former Queen Farida — now divorced from the Egyptian monarch—when Farouk walked in. "He didn't know who I was," Frederica was quoted as saying. "But he (Farouk) took one look, ordered his wife out of the room and switched off the light. I was quite terrified. If I slapped his face I knew it might cause all sorts of international complications so I just stood up and said, 'That very big man outside in the naval uniform is my husband, and I love him very much.' Farouk simply laughed, turned on the light and walked out."

Undergoes Tonsillectomy

William Edward Jones, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A L. Jones, 2410 South Ingram, entered the Bothwell hospital this morning. A tonsillectomy was to be performed at 3:00 o'clock this afternoon. He will be dismissed from the hospital Thursday morning. He is the grandson of Mrs. Beulah Jones and Mrs. Burl McReynolds.

POLIO POSTER BOY—Twelve-year-old Larry McKenzie's picture will appear on hundreds of thousands of posters next January during the 1951 March of Dimes campaign for $50,000,000 to combat polio. The Kuckville, N Y., farm boy is proud of that and, as his grin shows, he's proud of the prize-winning pumpkin he had in a 4-H Club show.

Prison For Killing Father

CARUTHERSVILLE, Mo., Nov. 29—(AP)—Carl Gallion, 15-yr.-old farm youth of Pascola, Mo., late Monday was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary after being convicted of slaying his nearly blind father, Ruff Gallion, 62, at the family home last August 1. Conviction was for manslaughter.

The elder Gallion was struck over the left eye with a piece of timber after he had ordered the son to leave home, it was brought out at the trial. On August 2, after the father had lain wounded through the night, the son called a doctor and the father was removed to a Memphis, Tenn., hospital where he died.

Testimony was that the youth was ordered to leave because the father said he had been stealing money from members of the family. Only the father, son and a deaf mute child were at home at time of the slaying.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams Judd of near Burtville have moved to Knob Noster.

Australia Eyes Uranium Finds

DARWIN, Australia — (AP) — The thinly-peopled northern territory of Australia may hold vast deposits of uranium ore. Already five radio-active ore deposits have been found — two in the northern part of the territory at Rumjungle and Ferguson river — and three smaller ones in the Alice Springs area.

Government rewards have been paid to the finders of the Rumjungle and Ferguson river deposits. There is one important point about these two discoveries of radio-active deposits. The two places are 150 miles apart, yet rock formations are similar. It could mean that more deposits of high grade radioactive ore are available along this 150 mile stretch of little-known country between Rumjungle and Ferguson river.

JAYNE'S P-W tablets KILL PIN-WORMS

(You may have them and not know it)

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often tell-tale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge. . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Highway Toll At High Price

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 29—(AP)—Eight hundred traffic deaths a year on Missouri's highways are too high a price to pay for the privilege of driving, Col. David E. Harrison, superintendent of the State Highway Patrol, said today.

He spoke before the South Central Business Association.

Colonel Harrison found little consolation in the fact that the state's mileage-death mark this year is the lowest on record.

The mark of 5.1 deaths per 100 million vehicle miles, reported by the National Safety Council for the first six months, is well under the national average of 6.9 deaths.

But this is chiefly attributable, Harrison said, to new all-time records now being set for vehicles miles in Missouri.

The actual number of deaths now is 10 per cent higher than at this time in 1949.

Deaths last year totaled 799, a sizable decrease from 1941 when the toll was 1,078, Harrison said.

Tibet has no railways, airfields or motor roads.

Young Doughboy Ready For School

By Stan Swinton

TOKYL, Nov. 29 — (AP) — The Army hustled a 16 - year - old doughboy from the Manchurian border back toward his Kentucky schoolroom Tuesday night.

"A fine thing," he snorted. "They catch up with me after the whole border campaign is over."

He is Pfc. Lewis R. Norman of Hopkinsville, Ky. As he stepped from a plane in Tokyo, he said he didn't know who tipped the army about his age, but added:

"I sure didn't."

Norman will be 17 Jan. 17.

The youngster came to Japan from the Yalu river frontier of Red Manchuria. He had founght his way northward to the border with L Company of the U. S Seventh Division's 17th Infantry Regiment.

Without gloves, he explained: "Mine wore out." And, although the mercury dipped to 28 degrees below zero, he had no pile lining for his thin parka.

"I hope I never see snow again," he said. "I'm going back to school, gradute and then maybe enlist in the Air Force. I've had enough of the infantry. Heck, I even had one heel shot off my shoe the other day. That's too close.

"It sure will feel swell to get home."

The tartan was illegal in Scotland from 1707 to 1782.

Localizing of Hostilities is Now Remote

Such is View of Many in Circles Of United Nations

By Tom Ochiltree

LAKE SUCCESS, Nov. 29—(AP)—United Nations circles privately expressed forebodings today on the chances of localizing the bitter Korean fighting in view of the Chinese Communists' unyielding attitude.

This feeling prevailed even in those non-Communist delegations that had urged bringing the Chinese Reds to Lake Success in the hope some conciliatory agreement could be worked out.

Peiping's spokesman, Wu Hsiu-Chuan, blasted many of those hopes in the security council yesterday when he made it plain the Chinese Communists had no intention of withdrawing from Korea. Informants felt his stinging attack on United States policies in the Orient widened the gulf between Mao Te-Tung's regime and the non-Communist world.

India's Sir Benegal Rau, who has been expected to take the lead in conciliation efforts with the Chinese Reds, said he had no plan to confer with the Peiping representatives today.

Hesitancy on Vote

Britain, which like India recognized the Peiping regime, also has no intention at this stage to contact the Chinese Reds here. A British source said his delegation does not wish to speak or vote in the security council this afternoon unless circumstances develop to a point where such actions would be necessary.

Divisions of South Koreans Regrouping

sufficient losses, he added, it can always achieve local successes.

Asked if the Chinese use of night attacks was not an important factor in their present successes, the officer agreed that it was.

He recalled that during World War II Americans had found the Chinese Nationalist soldiers suffering from "night blindness" due to diet deficiencies. He said this was remedied by taking lima beans away from the Chinese horses and feeding them to the men.

Declaring the Chinese face a difficult supply problem the spokesman said:

"In the past the Chinese armies have been well known for their failures in logistics."

Logistics is the science of supplying and supporting military forces."

Asked whether Russian advisers might not prevent such failures now, the officer recalled that Americans had advised Chinese troops during the last war and had taken control of some of their transportation but had been unable to erase supply difficulties.

Also at the Pentagon briefing: A navy spokesman reported that navy planes observed a "lot of stuff" moving behind the enemy lines in northwest Korea yesterday.

The navy planes encountered increasing anti-aircraft fire from the Manchurian side of the border which they are not allowed to attack. One was hit near Kanggye and crash landed. The pilot was seen to walk away from the plane and a helicopter was dispatched to pick him up. Whether the pilot was rescued, the navy does not yet know here.

The air force reported that air operations against the Communists neared a record yesterday. About 600 sorties were flown in daylight and about 100 additional at night. No enemy planes were engaged in combat, but four or five were sighted.

Threat of Trap For a Big Allied Force

to stabilize their lines against a concerted enemy attack.

Allied warplanes, grounded Wednesday morning by bad weather, roared over the front throughout the afternoon in close support of desperate ground troops.

But a heavy smoke haze over the eastern flank hampered air activity.

The spokesman said the Chinese may have set fires to conceal their movements.

Roads leading south from the shrunken front were jammed with refugees. Allied convoys rolled down clogged highways. Trucks, jeeps and heavy weapons inched along bumper to bumper.

Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, Eighth army commander, said the Allies "end-the-war" offensive, launched Friday, "probably saved our forces from a trap which might well have destroyed them."

He said that if the Allies had waited, the Chinese Reds might have had 400,000 troops to throw against the Eighth army.

The retreat across the Chongchon at Kunu was made under massive Red attacks.

AP correspondent Tom Lambert, with the Eighth army, reported at 6:43 p.m. (3:43 a.m., CST) that the river-crossing withdrawal in the eastern sector was all but complete.

But a South Korean division to the west was still north of the river at latest reports, along with the U. S. 24th.

Are Still Fighting

The ROK First division was fighting on the 24th's right flank, with its back to the river.

The Eighth army said the ROKS at noon yesterday were holding off enemy attacks.

Still in Hopes of Solution

The informants reported, that the United States recently consulted Britain over a request by Gen. MacArthur for authority to chase attacking Chinese Communist planes over the Manchurian frontier.

Britain, in pursuance of her policy to avoid a fullscale military involvement with Red China, strongly opposed the request.

Cabinet members were grave-faced as they entered No. 10 Downing street, Attlee's official residence. All declined any comment.

Anthony Eden, deputy Conservative leader, expressed some disappointment with Bevin's remarks.

"I had hoped that the foreign secretary would have been able to disclose a little more of the government's mind and intention in regard to the most recent developments in Korea," Eden said.

Eden offered the view that the "wasp waist" of upper Korea should be fortified and held. He said the UN must agree on a strategic directive and enforce it.

Newspapers here and on the continent voiced serious forebodings.

One French newspaper asserted the third world war has started.

London newspapers blazoned news of the fighting under such headlines as—

The Daily Mail—"80,000 Americans in Trap—Gap Widens in Big Encirclement."

The Daily Express—"Acheson—Grave Warning."

The Daily Herald—"Truman Calls Crisis Council."

The situation was regarded with considerable anxiety in the House of Commons, which opens a two-day foreign affair debate this afternoon.

Much concern was shown too in government and diplomatic quarters here. But one western diplomat expressed the view the Chinese move probably was made only to produce a situation in which they could "now negotiate from strength."

Still Digging Out Of Deep Snow

By the Associated Press

Chilly weather packed down the snow, preventing thawing, in big industrial centers today while they strove to resume operations at a normal pace.

Temperatures were expected to rise no higher than 32 degrees—the freezing level—in Ohio and 34 in Pennsylvania.

The weather bureau in Chicago reported there may be some thawing but that it would not be rapid.

That was good news for cities digging out of snow that ranged up to three feet in depth. Senator Kilgore (D.-W. Va.) has asked President Truman to call an emergency meeting to plan action to cope with the floods in event that snows melt quickly.

If there is a rapid runoff, the Senator wrote the President, West Virginia, Ohio, Pennsylvania and other areas "may face one of the worst floods in our history."

However, temperatures high enough to melt snow were forecast for Kentucky and Tennessee.

The Weather Bureau's latest summary reported light snow in the Great Lakes region, the upper Ohio valley, Pennsylvania and New York.

West Virginia had a fresh fall that ranged up to nine inches in the mountainous areas of Pocahontas county.

The Clarksburg, W. Va., City Council declared a state of emergency and requested state aid in clearing the streets. There were three feet of snow on the ground there.

Elsewhere, there was movement back toward normal in the regions burdened with last week-end's snow—and, in the case of motorists, it was moving too fast.

Pittsburgh police threw roadblocks on streets leading into the snow-clogged downtown district, department stores reopened and motorists tried to make a mass invasion of the district.

Mayor David L. Lawrence ordered all passenger cars, except those on emergency errands, turned back. The traffic jam threatened to curtail public transportation that still was only 35 per cent of normal.

'Not Aware' of Pumice Plan

who put the money in. I'm just representing him," Wallace added.

In his statement last night, Davis said he "invested $100,000 in the project because I thought pumice as a building material had great possibilities. It was a business deal only and I still hope to make something on the investment.

"I did not discover that Binaggio, with whom I was not acquainted, had any idea of entering the pumice business until several months ago when the fact was carried in the newspapers. . .

"Fred (Wallace) told me something about Lockwood approaching him seeking to invest in the company but there was no indication it was Binaggio. Lockwood represented other pumice companies, too. That is how we regarded him."

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation last June loaned the company $50,000 to help finance a $125,000 plant. The loan was secured by a first mortgage on the plant. But Wallace said most of the money was put up by Davis.

Address is Given To Men's Club

Neal Bartley, chairman of the board of trustees of the Country Club Congregational church of Kansas City and a member of the national church laymen's council, spoke last night before the Men's club of the Federated church, Sixth street and Osage avenue.

Mr. Bartley's topic was "The Responsibilities of Church Members to Their Church" and he told of the progress made by the Country Club Congregational church of Kansas City since a re-awakening of the laymen of the church to their duties as church members.

Preceding Mr. Bartley's talk the Federated church guild served dinner to the thirty-five members attending this regular bi-monthly meeting.

The meeting was presided over by A. M. Cowherd, president.

Church of Christ Forms Council

CLEVELAND, Nov. 29—(AP)—The National Council of the Churches of Christ—a United Nations for American Protestants—came into being today amid trumpet fanfare and stirring pageantry.

Dr. Franklin Clark Fry of New York, president of the United Luthern Church, intoned:

"I declare that the National Council of the Church of Christ in the United States of America is officially constituted. Let us now dedicate it to the glory of God and to the service of mankind."

The words united the work of more than 31,000,000 communicants of 29 Protestant and eastern orthodox churches—one of the most significant religious movements since the days of Martin Luther and the reformation.

With today's formal ceremony, the good works of a major segment of American Protestantism will be coordinated under terms of a constitution which begins:

"In the providence of God, the time has come when it seems fitting more fully to manifest the essential oneness of the Christian churches of the United States of America in Jesus Christ . . ."

The Korean crisis added still more solemnity to the founding of the national council.

Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of New York introduced a resolution calling for the national council to consider framing a formal statement of its views on international policy. If the bishop's suggestion is followed, a committee will embody these views in a message to the President, to be made public for all the people. He said he offered the motion because many of the clergy and the laity have expressed grave concern over the Korean crisis. The motion was adopted, and the statement will be prepared later.

Holds Prize Plan As a Lottery

JEFFERSON CITY, Nov. 29—(AP)—You put your nickle in, see and play the gadget. And maybe you come up with a whale of a score as the pinball lights flash.

Then at the end of a week or so, the tavern operator gives you a prize.

That's a lottery, Attorney General J. E. Ttylor held yesterday operating a lottery is a felony in Missouri. It's a lottery because it has the three essential elements of lotteries—consideration, chance and prize.

The opinion was written to answer the questions of the Kansas City Board of Police Commissioners. The board said a lot of Kansas City taverns have been featuring the "skill" contest.

Dismiss Suit on W. B. Couhig

A suit filed by the Esser Sales Company against Wm. B. Couhig for the return of $329.50, allegedly paid by Esser's to Couhig for surrendering a liquor license, that it might be available to Esser's, part of a contract to further buy Couhig's liquor stock, was called for trial in the circuit court before Judge Dimmitt Hoffman Monday. After the first witness had given partial testimony the plaintiff dismissed the suit.

The suit had to do with a proposal of Esser to make the deal with Couhig, but the City Council, receiving a number of protests against additional liquor places on Main street, where Esser planned to locate, refused to issue the license for that place.

Bamburg and Bogutski represented the plaintiff, Wm. F. Brown and John McCloskey, the defendant.

The jury which was to have heard the case was composed of Lacey Belt, Finis Withers, Clyde Manning, George Lacey, Oden Bruce, George Coffman, W. P. Nicholson, Russell Culbertson, Thomas J. Raines, William Rieck, Marvin Goodwin, and Warner Vogt.

MacArthur Hope Was That The War Would End Soon

during a flying trip to North Korea as United Nations forces opened an offensive to end the fighting. Morin accompanied MacArthur in the flight.

MacArthur was talking with Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker and Maj. Gen. John B. Coulter. Morin said he remarked with a smile:

"You tell the boys that when they get to the Yalu (river) they are going home. I want to make good on my statement that they are going to eat Christmas dinner at home."

Just what was meant by making good "on my statement" was not clear but Morin said it had been reported several days before that MacArthur told some United Nations representatives he expected the war to be over by Christmas. This statement never was confirmed.

Last Oct. 20 MacArthur watched U. N. troops parachuting into North Korea and Morin quoted him:

"The war is definitely drawing to a close."

Osteopaths May Use Drugs

perform operative surgery with instruments," Judge Blair ruled.

Referring to the Audrain county hospital, Blair held that the institution must permit osteopaths to treat their patients there. But it could require the osteopaths to abide by the same hospital regulations that medical doctors do.

Missouri is one of a dwindling group of states that permit osteopaths to use medicines and surgery in treating patients. The osteopaths called in witnesses from several other states in presenting their arguments.

The medical doctors, too, drew upon a number of professional men in their opposition. Among them were two Kansans who at one time were osteopaths but who switched to the practice of medicine after more schooling.

Valuation of State Fair at $2,168,700

spent on highway maintenance but that is not figured in the state's total property inventory. It is regarded as an offset to depreciation of the original road investment.

The state capitol's value — including estimates on the value of its famous murals — is set at $15,837,000. Property in the state museum adds $600,000 to that. The building's original construction cost in 1918 was $4,125,,000.

Kowalski Will Meet Eckert Here Tonight

Meeker vs Esteppe; Benicasa vs Safford In Other Events

Main Event
Wladek Kowalski vs. Ray Eckert
Polish Tarzan California, Mo.
2 falls out of 3, with a 90-minute limit.

Semi-Windup
Jerry Meeker vs. Marshall Esteppe
Missoula, Mont. Sturgeon, Mo.
2 falls out of 3, 45-minute limit.

Opening Event
Joe Benicasa vs. Paul Safford
Long Beach, Calif. Denver, Colo.
One fall with a 30-minute limit.

Time: 8:30 p. m. Wednesday.
Place: National Guard Armory.
Referee: Jack Hader, Kansas City.

There will be plenty of action tonight when Ray Eckert, the California whirlwind of the heavyweight wrestlers goes against "Tarzan" Kowalski the "Polish Giant" of Detroit, Mich., in the main event on the weekly wrestling card of Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion.

It's a fact that a large delegation from California and vicinity have already gotten their tickets for the big event. They were given the unexpected thrill of seeing their favorite put "The Great" Moto out of wrestling in Sedalia for some time to come. Toughness and roughness paid dividends against jui jutsi in this match which was taken by Eckert in the last two fall periods.

Wladek Kowalski, who has the appearance of Apollo, stands six feet four inches in height, and has a beautiful build, along with some excellant wrestling experience, is expected to give Eckert about all he wants in wrestling.

Supporting the feature event will be the semi-windup which brings together Jerry "Killer" Meeker of Missoula, Mont., and Marshall "The Wrestling Postmaster" Esteppe of Sturgeon. This event will see two wrestlers of approximate size and experience clashing for the best two of three falls.

Neither needs any introduction to Sedalia ringsiders and both have their own sports following. It will be hard to take sides in the event because of the favoritism of the two to local wrestling fans.

Opening the evening of grappling entertainment will be a one-fall event between two newcomers to the Sedalia ring in Joe Benicasa of Long Beach, Calif., and Paul Safford of Denver, Colo. Promoter Pearl Christy promises this match to equal either of the other two on the card.

Wyoming to Gator Bowl

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 29—(AP)—Wyoming, champion of the Skyline Six and unbeaten in nine games, will meet Washington and Lee, champion of the Southern conference, in the Gator Bowl football game here Jan. 1.

Wyoming, coached by Bowden Wyatt who was a star Tennessee end in 1938, is top team in the nation on defense. The cowboys operate from the single wing formation. Colorful Eddie Talboom runs the show at tailback.

Washington and Lee, coached by George Barclay who was All-America guard at North Carolina in 1934, uses the split T formation. It is in the hands of quarterback Gil Bocetti, named to the Southern conference all-star team.

Eleven Wyoming players were named to the two-platoon all-star team of the Skyline Six.

Wyoming lost only one game in two years, and is one of only four major teams unbeaten and untied this season. This season it scored successive victories over Montana State, Baylor, Colorado A&M, Utah State, Utah, New Mexico, Idaho, Brigham Young and Denver.

Washington and Lee defeated Furman, West Virginia, Citadel, Davidson, Virginia Tech, Delaware, Louisville and Richmond. The Generals lost to Tennessee 27-20 and to Virginia, 26-21.

Bowl Happy Sooners!

Seven Oklahoma football players join Coach Bud Wilkinson in a celebration at Norman, Oklahoma, after the team voted to accept a Sugar bowl bid. It will be the Sooners third trip to New Orleans for the New Year's classic. Shown here are (left to right): Halfback Merrill Green, end Ray Keller, center Tom Catlin, guard Clair Mayes, Wilkinson, end John Reddell, end Jack Lockett and guard Norman McNabb. (AP Wirephoto)

S-C Edges-By Stover, 41-39 On Freak Play

A freak bucket by Bill McCrary with two minutes left gave the Smith-Cotton Tigers a 41-39 victory over the Stover Bulldogs in the opening game of the season for the local hoopsters. The game was played at Stover Tuesday night.

Leading 38-35 when the unusual play occured, McCrary's weird basket cinched the contest. In attempting to pass the ball down court on a fast break, "Gabby" overshot his intended receiver; he overshot to the extent the ball rebounded off the backboard and dropped through the net.

Claude Murphy paced the Tiger scoring with 16 points. The keynote to the Sedalia victory was the supurb rebounding of Bob Shawver and Ed Johnson.

Smith-Cotton led 27-19 at the half.

Virgil Norris Kills Deer in Oark County

Virgil Norris, Route 5, Sedalia, one of Pettis county's deer hunters this season, returned home Tuesday with a prize 8-point buck deer. The animal tipped the scale at 150 pounds.

Mr. Norris made his kill on a ranch near Gainesville, Mo., in Ozark county while hunting with his brother W. J. Norris. He shot the deer as it was running away from him making his counting hit in the back.

It was the seventh deer killed in his hunting career. For three straight years, 1946-47-48, he got one deer each season, missed in 1949 and says he is starting all over with this year.

Burglaries In Three Schools On Tuesday

NEVADA, Mo., Nov. 29—(AP)—Break-ins by burglars at three schools in Vernon and Cedar counties were reported to officers here yesterday.

They said more than $300 in school funds were taken by persons who broke into schools at Richards, Eldorado Springs and Jerico Springs.

Quarterback Club Meets December 7

The motion pictures showing the games of the Missouri Tigers with Oklahoma and Kansas are to be shown to the Sedalia Quarterback club at its meeting to be held at the Old Missouri Homestead December 7. President Tom Jenkins has received word Coach Faurot is sending the latest game pictures which he feels Sedalia fans will enjoy, especially the victory over Kansas on Missouri homecoming day.

There will be no meeting this week due to the fact the Tigers leave Thursday for Miami, Fla., where they play Miami on Friday night. The fact the entire coaching squad is accompanying the team made it impossible to send a Tiger representative to Sedalia for this week.

If possible the pictures of the Miami-Missouri game will also be brought to Sedalia on the 7th.

Moose Defeated Versailles 45-29

The Sedalia Moose basketball team defeated Versailles Tuesday night at Liberty park convention hall, by a score of 45 to 29. This was the third straight victory for the Sedalia aggregation this season.

High point scoring went to Edwards of the Moose who scored 18 points, Tipton of the Sedalia team tallied 11. For Versailles Garrison ran up sixteen of their 29 points while Cable scored 13.

Friday night the Moose will travel to Warrensburg to meet the town team of that place.

Sawatski, Catcher of Cubs, In Army

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 29—(AP)—Carl Sawatski, the Chicago Cubs catcher, is in the Army.

Until last mid-season, Sawatski was with Nashville of the Southern Association.

CBC Meets Ozark Thursday Night

The Central Business College basketeers open their home season at convention hall, Liberty park, at 8:00 o'clock Thursday night. They meet the Lake of the Ozark "Lakers." Ozark is known for its strong aggregation and is expected to give CBC a hard game, which is expected to be one of the better court contests of the early cage season.

Starters for CBC will be Foster McGuire, Hillard Willie (a starting guard on the CMSC basketball team), Billy Elwell and Artie Elwell (both MIAA selections on the CMSC basketball team), Bud Thomas, former S-C Tiger star, Neil Kammeyer, Dick Harris, David Wells and Bob Jackson.

The Business college quintet is pointing for the CBC Invitational Tournament which will be held in Sedalia December 14, 15 and 16th. Included in the tournament will be several outstanding town teams of Central Missouri.

First and second place winners in the tourney will be eligible for the Lions Invitational state tournament to be held the latter part of January.

Central Defeats Kirksville

KIRKSVILLE, Mo., Nov. 29—(AP)—Central college of Fayette forged ahead in the last two minutes for a 59-57 basketball victory over the Kirksville Teachers last night.

Varsity Defeats Alumni

WARRENSBURG, Mo., Nov. 29—(AP)—The Central Missouri State basketball Varsity defeated an Alumni team 67-45 in a warmup game last night.

At Miami The Hurricanes Are The Favorites

Thorn in Side of Floridans is the Tigers' Split-T

By James F. Fowler

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 29—(AP)—Miami's Orange Bowl bound Hurricanes, unbeaten but once-tied, complete their most successful season in 25 years Friday night against the University of Missouri in the Orange Bowl.

With the probable return of Frank Smith to the lineup and several others injured, Miami boosters already have established the unconquered hurricanes as the favorite.

Over 40,000 fans are expected for the regular season finale.

Coach Andy Gustafson's chief worry now is getting his young squad out of the clouds following the invitation and acceptance Monday of the Orange Bowl bid.

As a lever, Gustafson has pointed to Missouri's Thanksgiving Day triumph over favored Kansas. Missouri's complicated split-T formation also has been a thorn in the Hurricane side.

Gustafson also has pointed out the record of Missouri's fine end, Gene Ackerman, the six foot, five inch giant who has accounted for 157 Missouri points in the last seven games.

Jack Hackett, Miami's ace quarterback injured in the Georgetown game, has been working out with the team during the week but is not likely to see any action Friday night.

Smith May Be in Action

The Hurricane's chief groundgainer, Frank Smith, also injured in the Georgetown game, may see limited action.

Gustafson will rely on Bob Schneidenbach to call offensive signals and handle most of the passing. Schneidenbach was shifted from defensive halfback to offensive quarterback for the Florida game. To the happy surprise of everyone, the young New Jerseyite was the sparkplug for the Miami victory over Florida. He completed seven of 11 passes, one for a touchdown, and was one of the principal grounders.

Halfback Jim Dooley, understudy to first stringer Mike Vacchio, also have proved a pleasant surprise. Against Florida and last week against Iowa Dooley was the number one ball carrier and pass receiver.

Thus far this season Miami has racked up 210 points to their opponents' 73. They have been among the top 20 teams of the nation since their upset win over Purdue and the week following their lopsided 28-0 triumph over Pittsburgh the nation's sports editors picked them eighth in the country in the Associated Press poll.

This will mark the first time that Miami and Missouri have met. Its also the first time the Hurricanes have played a Big Seven team. So far this season Miami has turned back two Big Ten teams (Purdue and Iowa); one Southern conference team (Georgetown) and one Southeast conference team (Florida).

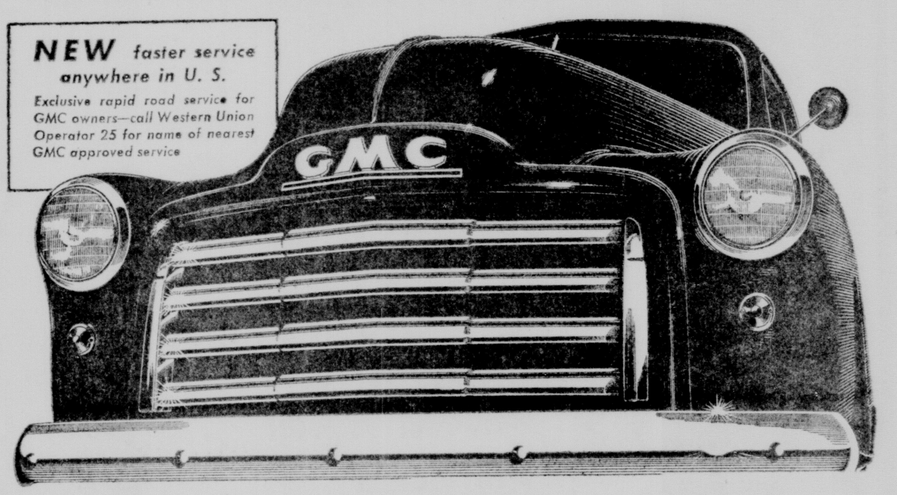
TRUCKERS SAY IT
Outworks Them All
NEW faster service anywhere in U. S.
Exclusive rapid road service for GMC owners—call Western Union Operator 25 for name of nearest GMC approved service



IN these uncertain days it's wise to buy a rugged truck that can roll with the punches for years to come. Big fleet operators who keep careful check on all makes of trucks tell us that GMC's are consistent standouts for long life with minimum maintenance.
That goes for all GMC's from ½-ton models up. Many GMC Diesel trucktractors are still highballing loads with more than a million miles of over-the-road service behind them.
The reason is—every GMC is all truck! Every GMC is designed by truck engineers for truck service with 100% truck-built parts. You get a real truck engine with high horsepower and higher sustained torque—more pull—an engine that delivers full power without eating its heart out!
There are many other extra-value reasons why a GMC is your best buy for the long haul. We'll be glad to give you proof!

Brion to Try For Knockout

CHICAGO, Nov. 29—(AP)—Young Cesar Brion, full of vim and confidence, predicts a kayo within seven rounds of aging Joe Louis in their scheduled 10 rounder in Chicago stadium tonight.

The 23-year old Argentine heavyweight is at the short end of 4-1 odds to defeat Joe. Louis, trying a second comeback at 36 after being decisively beaten in 15 rounds by Ezzard Charles last September, still thinks he packs enough dynamite to chill Brion.

"I'll shoot for a knockout from the very start and throw as many rights as possible," promised Louis.

A crowd of possibly 10,000 and a $50,000 gate, largest since the International Boxing club began stadium promotions 18 months ago, may be realized. Louis will receive 37½ per cent of the net gate. His payoff may amount to less than $10,000 — the smallest purse for a regular bout he ever has received. He made more in some of his exhibitions two years ago.

Both fighters will get a flat $1,000 each from radio and television fees.

Brion will weigh 194, spotting the ex-heavyweight champion some 21 pounds. Joe expects to be three pounds lighter than when he met Charles.

This will be Joe's first fight since the Charles bout in New Yorw. After that bout he announced, for the second time, he was retiring a poor showing against Brion may make it definite.

Brion is an aggressive, stand-up fighter who lacks a chilling punch. His main bid to fame was a second-round knockout of Tami Mauriello in 1949. He has won 31 out of 34 bouts.

Wadiak Set Rushing Record

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 29—(AP)—Steve (The Cadillac) Wadiak, South Carolina's star halfback from Chicago, today was named captain of the 1950 all-Southern conference football team of the Associated Press.

Wadiak, who set a new league rushing record this year with 998 yards, gained the honor by polling the most votes in the annual balloting for the mythical team by area sports writers and football coaches of the 17 conference colleges.

The complete first team:

Ends—Blaine Earon, Duke, and Elmer Wingate, Maryland.

Tackles — Elmer Costa, North Carolina State, and Jim Staton, Wake Forest.

Guards—Bob Ward, Maryland, and Joe Dudeck, North Carolina.

Center — Irvin Holdash, North Carolina.

Backs—Gil Bocetti, Washington and Lee; Billy Cox, Duke; Steve Wadiak, South Carolina; Fred Cone, Clemson.

Split Quarter of Million by Game

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29—(AP)—Oklahoma and Kentucky will split an estimated $250,000 for 60 minutes of football in the Sugar Bowl New Year's Day.

But each school will have to fork over about $25,000 to its conference as a share of the gate.

Oklahoma, champions of the Big Seven, according to conference rules will turn over 20 per cent of the first $100,000 plus one per cent on each $5,000 above that.

And Kentucky, Southeastern title holder, will give its conference 25 per cent of their estimated $125,000 share.

Kentucky athletic rirector Bernie Shively signed the Sugar Bowl contract for the Wildcats yesterday with the New Orleans mid-winter Sports Association (the Sugar Bowl group).

Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma head coach and athletic director, is expected to come here next week to sign the contract for the Sooners, a Sugar Bowl official said.

This will be Oklahoma's third straight appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Loyal Rebekah lodge 260 will hold a regular meeting Friday evening, December 1, at the American Legion hall at 7:30. Annual election of officers, election of state assembly officers. During social hour there will be a parcel post sale. All members are urged to attend this important meeting.

Charges Are Made of Aggression

Warren R. Austin, U. S. chief delegate to the United Nations, leans on his elbow as he addresses the U. N. Security Council at Lake Success at one of the most critical meetings in the council's history. Austin charged the Chinese Communists with open and notorious aggression in Korea. He spoke directly to the representative of Red China, Wu Hsui-Chuan, who sat at the council table as an invited guest. (AP Wirephoto)

May be Site of H-bomb Plant

Cross symbol locates the area in South Carolina along the Savannah river which a congressional source says has been selected as the site for a hydrogen bomb plant. The location chosen by the Atomic Energy Commission and the E. I. du Pont company is said to be in Aiken and Barnwell counties near Aiken, S. C. and Augusta, Ga. (underlined) The plant would provide materials for the H.-bomb but would not actually produce the bomb itself. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Care is Given 2,929 Children

COLUMBIA, Mo., Nov. 28—A total of 2,979 children representing every county in the state received care from the Missouri State Crippled Children's Service in the past fiscal year, according to Arthur W. Nebel, director, in his annual report to President Frederick A. Middlebush of the University of Missouri. The Service is under the administration of the Board of Curators, although it is not an integral part of the University.

Of the total number, 2,293 children received treatments for crippling conditions and 686 other children were given some service such as public health nursing services and appliances.

Nebel said poliomyelitis led the diagnostic groups, with 347 children receiving treatment for the malady. Other large groups included: 338 children treated for cerebral palsy; 224 for club foot; 207 for diseases of bones and organs of movement; 159 for flat feet; 133 for cleft palate and harelip; and 113 for congenital malformations. Nineteen other crippling conditions came under treatment.

During the past fiscal year, Nebel reported, 2,293 different children received out-patient care, hospital care or convalescent home care. There were 6,652 out-patient visits, 28,444 days of hospital care, and 15,362 days of convalescent home care.

The number of children receiving care from Pettis and surrounding counties are as follows: Benton 13, Cooper 32, Henry 19, Lafayette 18, Moniteau 31, Morgan 21, Pettis 68, Saline 25.

Stage Settings Be Featured

The Sedalia Community Playhouse production of "The Philadelphia Story," to be presented at Smith-Cotton high school on next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, will feature two stage settings. This will be an innovation in the group's history, all its previous productions having been played in a single interior setting. The play's action during the first and third acts will take place in the richly furnished living room of the Lords, a wealthy Philadelphia family. The second act takes place on the porch of the Lord home.

The sets were designed by Maurice Hogan and are being constructed by a committee under the chairmanship of W. E. Bruce. The walls in the interior scene are being painted a pastel blue, set off by white woodwork. Work on the set's construction is proceeding well, according to word received from Lawrence Riley, technical director of the play.

Meanwhile, rehearsals of the play are nearing completion under the direction of Mrs. Theodore Gardner. The work of Scott Webber, in the leading male role of C. K. Dexter Haven, has been declared outstanding in rehearsal. Mr. Webber will be remembered for his sensitive portrayal of Professor Tommy Turner in the group's production of "The Male Animal." "In "The Philadelphia Story," he plays the part which Joseph Cotten created on the stage and which Cary Grant played in the screen production.

Strange Craft Flies Over South Sedalia

Several Sedalians called the Capital office Tuesday evening to report a large blimp-like aircraft flying westward over Sedalia.

According to the reports the object was cruising at a high altitude and seemed to pass over the south section of the city. The craft was well lighted and seemed to be of considerable length.

Individual descriptions were slightly varied—one reported the ship had wings in the center, while others said it was of the conventional dirigible type. Its correct identity was unknown to any source contacted.

Hard of Hearing?

—Buzzing in Ears?
—Ringing in Head?
—Muffled Sounds?

THEN THE CHANCES ARE THAT YOU HAVE CERUMEN

CERUMEN is the condition brought on by excessive exudation of wax in the ear canal. Cerumen can make you hard-of-hearing in two ways: by clogging the canal and keeping sound from ear drums; by coating the vibration-carrying canal linings. This deep-down wax, in addition to making you hard-of-hearing, can cause buzzing, ringing, head noises.

PROVE YOU AREN'T GOING DEAF! Remove those hardened wax accumulations deep in your ear canal with OURINE. This compound of soothing oils gently loosens wax and by use of a simple syringe floats it out; also soothes and helps tissues normalize. Brion to Try For Knockout

CHICAGO, Nov. 29—(AP)—Young Cesar Brion, full of vim and confidence, predicts a kayo within seven rounds of aging Joe Louis in their scheduled 10 rounder in Chicago stadium tonight.

The 23-year old Argentine heavyweight is at the short end of 4-1 odds to defeat Joe. Louis, trying a second comeback at 36 after being decisively beaten in 15 rounds by Ezzard Charles last September, still thinks he packs enough dynamite to chill Brion.

"I'll shoot for a knockout from the very start and throw as many rights as possible," promised Louis.

A crowd of possibly 10,000 and a $50,000 gate, largest since the International Boxing club began stadium promotions 18 months ago, may be realized. Louis will receive 37½ per cent of the net gate. His payoff may amount to less than $10,000 — the smallest purse for a regular bout he ever has received. He made more in some of his exhibitions two years ago.

Both fighters will get a flat $1,000 each from radio and television fees.

Brion will weigh 194, spotting the ex-heavyweight champion some 21 pounds. Joe expects to be three pounds lighter than when he met Charles.

This will be Joe's first fight since the Charles bout in New Yorw. After that bout he announced, for the second time, he was retiring a poor showing against Brion may make it definite.

Brion is an aggressive, stand-up fighter who lacks a chilling punch. His main bid to fame was a second-round knockout of Tami Mauriello in 1949. He has won 31 out of 34 bouts.

Wadiak Set Rushing Record

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 29—(AP)—Steve (The Cadillac) Wadiak, South Carolina's star halfback from Chicago, today was named captain of the 1950 all-Southern conference football team of the Associated Press.

Wadiak, who set a new league rushing record this year with 998 yards, gained the honor by polling the most votes in the annual balloting for the mythical team by area sports writers and football coaches of the 17 conference colleges.

The complete first team:

Ends—Blaine Earon, Duke, and Elmer Wingate, Maryland.

Tackles — Elmer Costa, North Carolina State, and Jim Staton, Wake Forest.

Guards—Bob Ward, Maryland, and Joe Dudeck, North Carolina.

Center — Irvin Holdash, North Carolina.

Backs—Gil Bocetti, Washington and Lee; Billy Cox, Duke; Steve Wadiak, South Carolina; Fred Cone, Clemson.

Split Quarter of Million by Game

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29—(AP)—Oklahoma and Kentucky will split an estimated $250,000 for 60 minutes of football in the Sugar Bowl New Year's Day.

But each school will have to fork over about $25,000 to its conference as a share of the gate.

Oklahoma, champions of the Big Seven, according to conference rules will turn over 20 per cent of the first $100,000 plus one per cent on each $5,000 above that.

And Kentucky, Southeastern title holder, will give its conference 25 per cent of their estimated $125,000 share.

Kentucky athletic rirector Bernie Shively signed the Sugar Bowl contract for the Wildcats yesterday with the New Orleans mid-winter Sports Association (the Sugar Bowl group).

Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma head coach and athletic director, is expected to come here next week to sign the contract for the Sooners, a Sugar Bowl official said.

This will be Oklahoma's third straight appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Loyal Rebekah lodge 260 will hold a regular meeting Friday evening, December 1, at the American Legion hall at 7:30. Annual election of officers, election of state assembly officers. During social hour there will be a parcel post sale. All members are urged to attend this important meeting.

Charges Are Made of Aggression

Hal Boyle Reports from Korea

By Hal Boyle

WITH U. S. EIGHT ARMY, KOREA—(AP)—The life of the first army to fight under the United Nations banner is at stake in the Chill hills of North Korea.

Equally at stake is the success of the entire five months' effort to untie Korea by arms as a step towards world peace.

This startling turn taken by the Korean war can be summarized by an animal parable:

A terrier has long been fighting a marauding alley cat to keep her from the home he is protecting. One day he chases the cat across the cleared land toward the jungle trees.

As he nears the jungle, he sees the cat spitting at him from between the claws of a big tiger. Before he can halt, the tiger flicks out a paw and cripples one of the terrier's legs.

The terrier pauses. Most of the Tiger's body lies in the jungle that is the tiger's own domain, but its forepaws stretch out into the clearing that it is the terrier's duty to guard. Between those paws, the alley cat dares him to come on.

The terrier sees no help, but his duty is clear. He must drive both cats, the small one and the large , out of the clearing.

He charges bravely forward. Both cats are ready. They draw back slightly, then lunge at him. The blow breaks one leg of the terrier and sends him reeling back. Again he turns and faces his foes. What next?

The immediate and recisive choice lies with the tiger, which can lead on the terrier and kill him—but to do that the tiger will have to emerge all the way from the jungle, and that might mean that men with torches and clubs would come and beat the tiger to death and burn down the jungle.

The tiger can fade softly back into the jungle and let the wounded terrier chase the alley cat back.

However, it is a young tiger, full of pride, and rather likes the idea of having the cat remain in the clearing as a symbol of the tiger's power.

The tiger also has a third choice. It can just stay there on the edge of the jungle and slap down the dauntless terrier every time he advances. This could go on over and over again until the terriers owners decided eiher to call him off or go all-out to his aid. In soft purrs, the tiger meanwhile insists it is not even in the clearing.

The clearing is Korea; the jungle is China; the tiger is the Chinese Communist regime, and its paws are the "volunteers" now fighting the Eight Army terrier on behalf of the defeated North Korean cat.

The scene of the fights is a 60-mile stretch of frozen mountains and winding, narrow roads in northwest Korea.

The terrier Eight Army was first mauled late in October when it ran into a surprise ambush by the Chinese tiger during a race to catch the North Korean army's retreat.

Saturday night the Reds counterattacked. They have shattered three Korean Republican divisions on the Eight Army right flank, driving them back in disorder 20 miles.

That was the blow that broke the terrier's leg. Or, as military men say, it exposed the right flank. That badly crippled army probably now, as a result, may be at the mercy of the tiger's choice, many professional soldiers believe.

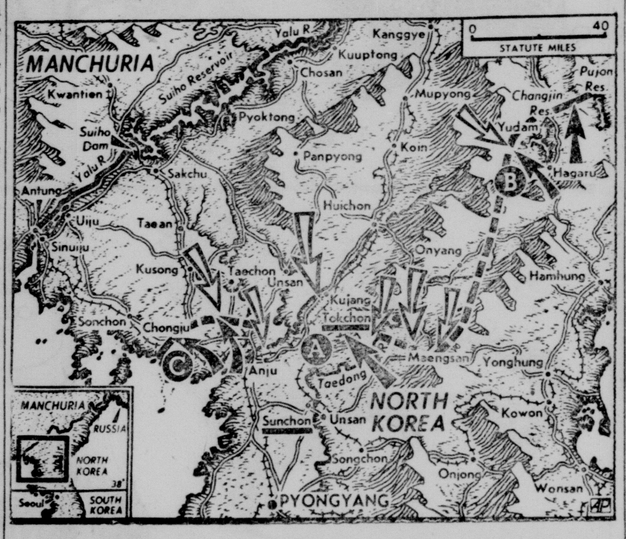
The enemy already stands less than 60 air miles from the former North Korean capital of Pyongyang. If the Reds can slash down those last miles, they have an excellent chance of bottling up or destroying the entire allied attacking force.

Red China is said to have some 500,000 troops in Manchuria. By quickly massing in a giant offensive, they might reach Pyongyang in a week. It could be a tempting prospect, for in the small U. N. army of 110,000 men that might be thus surrounded — an army made up of Americans, British, Australian and Turkish troops—are four American divisions.

These top combat outfits, the 24th, 25th and Second Infantry divisions and the First Cavalry division, represent more than one-third of the entire Aremican army training striking force in the field. They make up a professional core that is counted on to to serve as heart and brain of a vast civilian army in America ever has to mobilize for a larger war.

It could add immeasurably to Red China's military prestige to capture or destroy these divisions, but what might be the final result if she tried? A third World War may hinge on her decision, a decision that must come soon.

U. N. Offensive Halted



Chinese Red attacks threatened the complete collapse of the U. N. drive to end the war in Korea. Reserve units were rushed to bolster a sagging 30-mile section of the front (A). U. S. Marines started a drive from Changjin reservoir (b) in an effort to relieve pressure on other Allied troops. For the second time in a month the U. S. 24th division has been forced to give up Chongju (c). Black arrows indicate U. N. positions; open arrows locate Red counterattacks. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Chinese Red Appears Before U. N.

Wu Hsiu-Chuan (left), head of the Chinese Communist delegation to the United Nations, listens to the proceedings at a session of the U. N. General Assembly's political committee at Lake Success, N. Y. Also seated at the table is United Kingdom Delegate Kenneth Younger. The Chinese Communist representatives made a dramatic appearance at the committee session, arriving as Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky was elaborating on Russian charges that the U. S. was guilty of aggression against China. A name plate with the name "People's Republic of China" is in front of the Red representative. (AP WIREPHOTO) manants.

Last Friday the Eight army tried again. It had at its disposal fewer than ten or the 19 United Nations divisions in Korea. It faced at least 19 tentatively identified enemy divisions — 11 Chinese and eight North Korean.

U. S. May Face Another Rubber Shortage

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright 1950 By The Bell Syndicate Inc.)

WASHINGTON. — Communist advances in French Indo-China, Tibet and Asia generally are belatedly waking up some of our foreign-policy planners to what may be another Pearl Harbor.

In brief, the United States, after suffering the worst economic disaster in history when the Japs captured Singapore, may find our rubber, tin, quinine and other tropical products cut off again.

For four years the American people were forced to walk as a result of the rubber and tire shortage. Tin cans were also curtailed; while millions of dollars were spent planting cinchona or quinine trees in Latin America. Now, though we are much better prepared regarding synthetic rubber, part of this may happen all over again.

Chief lesson to be drawn from the Communist threat to our economic lifeline in Asia is the manner in which we have neglected our own best neighbors right next door in Latin America. While a few State Department officials under live-wire Assistant Secretary Edward Miller have been pushing Latin-American friendship, actually much of our financial help to European cartels has hurt Latin America.

The American public has largely forgotten the fact that when Columbus arrived in America he was amazed to find Indians bouncing balls. This was the first discovery of rubber, which then became the great industry of Brazil and other Latin-American countries.

Ghost Rubber City

Today, however, Manaos, the rubber capital of Latin America, has become a ghost city—after a Britisher smuggled seeds of the rubber plant to Ceylon.

Gradually the British-Dutch rubber cartel built up its markets in the USA, and once they attained a monopoly position, they put the price squeeze on the American consumer. Despite the vigorous protests of Charles Evans Hughes when secretary of state, we paid what the Asiatic rubber cartel wanted us to and paid through the nose.

After Pearl Harbor we began frantically to encourage our good neighbors in Latin America to grow rubber again. Brazil, Mexico, Ecuador, Costa Rica, Venezuela, Salvador, Nicaragua, Haiti, Honduras all were urged to grow rubber, regardless of cost. Loud were the cries also: "This will never happen again."

However, it is happening again. In October 1947 American delegates at the Geneva economic conference agreed to give up about two-thirds of the American rubber market to Asiatic rubber, chiefly British controlled. This meant two things:

1. The complete collapse of the new rubber industry we had encouraged in Latin America.

2. The closing of various synthetic rubber plants in the USA. Some of these plants, having been closed, later were sold at bargain-rate prices by surplus property administrator Jess Larson, who thought, perhaps correctly, that he was merely following national policy.

Meanwhile, though we are much better off when it comes to synthetic rubber, we would have to have rubber rationing all over again—if war came.

Meanwhile also, communism has been growing at our own front Latin-American door—because of unemployment and curtailed economy.

Helping G.I.'s

Senator "Long Tom" Connally of Texas, in addition to helping steer U.S. foreign policy, is never too busy to fight for the little fellow. He is now about to win an important financial victory for American doughboys in Korea.

On October 21, Senator Connally spotted an item in the Washington Merry-Go-Round which read:

"Under the current Army pay system, the real heroes in the Korean war are drawing the least pay. They don't even get a fair share of the glory when the publicity and medals are dished out.

"These unsung heroes are the infantrymen, who form the Army's battering ram, but who are not paid as much as the technical men and pencil pushers behind the lines.

"It used to be that infantrymen could collect $10 extra each month for combat work. If they wore the combat infantryman's badge, it was good for a $10 monthly bonus. However, even this has been taken away from them in Korea."

Senator Connally clipped the column and sent it to the Army, together with a letter wanting to know why combat men were being discriminated against. He has now received a letter from the Army indicating that it would urge a $50 bonus monthly for combat enlisted men, with $100 a month for officers.

What the Army told Senator Connally in summary follows:

"The Department of the Army recognizes the plight of the infantrymen who in past wars and in the Korean operation have borne the brunt of the fighting. We intend to do everything possible to give the deserved recognition and compensation to those combat fighters upon whom the success of all our military efforts ultimately depends.

"From the standpoint of extra compensation for the combat fighter, the Army has prepared and submitted to the Department of Defense a proposal to ask Congress for extra pay for each month of combat duty in Korea. The Department of Defense has indicated considerable interest and we anticipate early submission of the proposal to Congress."

NOTE—Senator Connally was also among the few who in 1945 protested against removal of the excess-profits war tax. The White House since then has wished that it had followed his advice.

Excess-Profits Loopholes

The House Ways and Means committee has decided behind closed doors to write a stiff clause in the excess-profits-tax bill to prevent big corporations from "squandering" profits as a means of reducing tax payments.

However, legitimate business expenses will be deductible under a formula proposed by Rep. Herman Eberharter of Pennsylvania whereby expenditures for hotel and travel, advertising and entertainment, would be governed by the amounts spent for these purposes from 1946 through 1949.

In other words, if a corporation spent $100,000 annually for advertising during the 1946-49 period it could deduct no more than that from its excess-profits return. Allowances will be made, however, for shifts from newspaper to costlier radio advertising.

"I was disgusted by some of the tricks used by corporations to escape taxes when we had an excess-profits tax during the last war," GOP Congressman Carl Curtis of Nebraska told his colleagues. "One company sent me expensive brochures that had nothing to do with promoting sales of its product.

"All that costly paper went into the waste-basket at a time when we were up against a war shortage of paper. But the company could deduct this useless expense."

"Another racket by these big fellows is renting hotel rooms the year round, whether they are used or not," objected Michigan Democrat John Dingell, a gadfly of the large corporations. "Some of these big outfits even rent hotel suites on a yearly basis for occasional cocktail parties for Congressmen."

Increase in Religious Interest Is Linked to Troubled Times

By Bruce Biossat

One of the more interesting developments of these troubled times has been the great ground-surge of religion. Millions are turning to the church for answers to problems which non-spiritual guidance has been unable to solve.

It probably is no coincidence then that nine years of planning and effort is about to result in the establishment of the National Council of Churches, embracing 29 Protestant churches with a combined membership of more than 31 million persons.

The Council is the outgrowth of a three-day meeting of 1200 delegates at Cleveland late in November. Some church leaders have referred to this meeting as "the most important gathering of non-Roman Christians in the history of the American church."

The Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill saw it as "proof of the underlying spirit of cooperation among the churches and a promise that in action together we will face the great issues and opportunities of our time."

The National Council is a merger of eight national inter-denominational agencies. They are the Federal Council of Churches; Foreign Missions Conference of North America; Home Missions Council of North America; International Council of Religious Education; Missionary Education Movement of the United States and Canada; National Protestant Council Women; and United Stewardship Council.

No merger of denominations is envisaged but the functions of all of these fine and worthy interdenominational bodies will be united. And from that union none can doubt that greater strength will come and greater good be done. Onward, Christian Soldiers!

Absence Makes the Heart Grow Fonder

The city of Pittsburgh has just found out what it is like to be without its daily newspapers for a prolonged period of time. Editions of Sunday, Nov. 19, were the frst since a walkout of mail-room employes closed the three Pittsburgh dailies on Oct. 1.

A survey taken by a national advertising and public relations firm shows what happened to business and to individual readers.

Automobile dealers were unable to advertise new 1951 models and took losses ranging from 5 to 70 per cent. Beauty parlors estimated a falling off in trade of 20 to 50 per cent. Clothing retailers saw the decline as 25 per cent. Drugs, entertainment, florists, schools, sporting events all showed sharp declines.

A total of 92.4 per cent of people interviewed thought newspapers had become more important since they had been unable to get them. A total of 84.8 per cent said they found it difficult to find out facts or get them straight when newspapers weren't available.

Men missed chiefly, in order of importance: local news, sports, national news, foreign news, radio and television information, comics, columnists and editorials. Women missed local news, local store advertising, radio and television information, vital statistics, national news, food and cooking, comics and foreign news.

The survey organization footnotes these last two findings on men and women readers to the effect that people questioned may have had a tendency to minimize their real interest in comics and play up their interest in "more important things." Be that as it may, the range of interest covered the whole paper. One reader summed up his feelings at being without his paper: "It's like losing an old friend."

FINDING FREEDOM THROUGH LIMITATIONS

We continue our thought of "grace in the dungeon." All our limitations, our dungeons, can be places where we find grace. I have always been grateful that I went to a small, obscure college, for it left me with the sense of being uneducated. I suppose that those who go to great institutions feel secure; to mention the name of the great university which they attended brands them as educated. I have felt no such security; so I have endeavored all my life to become an educated person. I gather from every moment, every occasion, and every conversation something that will help educate me. On the tombstone of a man were these words: "He died climbing." I would like to have this inscription on mine: "He died learning." The limitation has been a liberty. I have found grace in the dungeon.

The person who has discovered and revealed to the people of Arkansas their wild flowers is a shut-in,a woman crippled with arthritis. Although her hands are gnarled and twisted, she has painted exquisitely five hundred specimens. Harvard university wants to buy the collection, but there is a public movement on foot to buy them for the state of Arkansas. Miss Whitfield cheerfully held up her twisted fingers and told how, by the law of compensation, she was enabled to paint those delicate lines. Her cheer and her skill are beyond words. She has found grace in the dungeon. A shut-in knows more about the wild flowers and where they grow than anyone in the state!

I want to pay my tribute of gratitude to the single women of the world for whom life might have been a dungeon of loneliness had they not made it into something else. Around the world they have married themselves to human need; have made every waif child their own; have brightened families, while they themselves were familyless; have lifted crosses from the burdened bodies and souls of people while they themselves have carried the cross of aloneness. They have found grace in the dungeon and have given it. Bless them!

O Christ, Thou hast shown me how to take hold of the nettle of life when it stings, and make those very stings into sensitiveness to the hurts of others. I am plunged into a dungeon. Perhaps I am in this dungeon so that I can see the stars. For I know that nothing can defeat me if I remain undefeated within. I thank Thee. Amen.

Q. and A.

You and the Service

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Q. If I think I am about to be drafted, how long can I wait before volunteering for one of the other services?

A. You must volunteer before you receive your pre-induction physical.

Q. I have been deferred to finish this school year, which will let me complete my pre-med education. Is there any way I can get a deferment to start medical school?

A. If you have had one deferment to finish school, under the present regulations it will be difficult to get your draft board to let you start medical scool. But there are several reports being studied by Selective Service which might result in permitting students to enter medical school with deferments until they finish. The present regulations might be changed.

Q. My twin brother was in the service three years and finally got out because of a nervous breakdown. He is afraid they might draft him now. I am completely deaf but do you think they might let me go in with him if he is called again?

A. If your brother served three years he won't be drafted. And if you are completely deaf they won't take you under any circumstances.

Q. I am a conscientious objector and married. Suppose they start drafting married men. What should I do?

A. You should have stated on your questionnaire that you are a conscientious objector, in addition to being married. If you didn't you'll probably have a tough time convincing your board that you really are a conscientious objector now. If you did, there's nothing to worry about.

Q. My son was in the National Guard. But when he became an apprentice embalmer he asked to be transferred to the inactive reserve. He was. Is there any chance of his being drafted? If he was about to be drafted could he go back with the Guard?

A. There is an excellent chance of his being drafted. And he can't go back in the Guard to avoid the draft.

THE STORY: Sergeant Eddie's squad is wiped out in battle and the dead men go to Westwaygo, the Middlewestern home town of most of them. Carl Peterson calls on his wife, who had been unfaithful with a man named Max, but Carl does not realize that she is preparing to kill herself. At a beach, Carl finds Max, reviving Margie Lou, who had made friends with Eddie's dog, the only living thing who can see the ghosts of the fighting men. Margie had been saved from death by Duke. Carl starts to attack Max, but Eddie interferes.

IX

THE other boys transferred their interest to what looked like the beginning of a pretty fair fight. The rescue work was pretty slow.

Just then Carl rose and came at Eddie who regretfully punched him in the astral nose, twice in succession.

Carl realized from the emphatic gestures on Eddie's part that they weren't playing for "mibbs" any more and he settled down doggedly to put the non-com out of business. Ordinarily he would have doubted whether he could do it. (He and Eddie were pals and had never fought each other before.) But Carl knew for a certainty that Eddie couldn't stop him now. Eddie wasn't mad the way Carl was. Carl didn't care much who got hurt or why.

So Carl came in close, took everything that Eddie had to offer but meanwhile chopped the stuffing out of Eddie, under the heart, all over the chest and kidneys, ending up with a commando trick which they both knew but which Eddie wouldn't have used—not on Carl.

The net, or end-result was Eddie flat on his back 15 feet away completely robbed of his strength and Carl grimly turning toward the man he really hated.

The latter, all unconscious of anything unusual, was pressing down with the weight of his shoulders on the small of the girl's back while he said, "One thousand and eighty-nine" (to control the rhythm) and then sitting up straight for a moment.

Carl Peterson swung at him.

Then Carl found out the bitter disillusioning truth. He didn't have anything at the end of his arm that Max could feel no matter how much strength Carl thought he was putting into a blow.

Eddie was on his feet now. He held no resentment. "I'm sorry about everything, Carlo. Is Kirsten pretty sick?"

"No," Carl replied. "She's all right. She ain't going to have the baby for a long time yet." All the fight went out of him as the force of that implication set in. "I'm the only one out of step, I guess," he said listlessly.

EDDIE could not think of any cheerful counter attack against Carl's glum deduction.

The villain in Carl's life was still working doggedly over Margie Lou's slim body totally unaware that a man who wanted to murder him was standing within reach of his arm.

Margie Lou was breathing almost normally now and Max experimented with missing a pressure beat occasionally. It worked all right so he discontinued altogether and began rubbing her arms and legs instead.

"I'll do that," said Eddie, but he remembered. "Darn it, I can't."

The others laughed, including even Carl.

"You're cute, baby," said Max with professional appreciation. "I think I'll be seein' more of you—but not much more at that."

"What say?"

It was Margie Lou's voice—faint and choked.

"She's comin' out of it," said Eddie reverently. "Thank goodness."

"Why?" asked Joe, looking at his sergeant curiously. "If you want her for yourself having her alive is the surest way to lose her. This middlewestern wolf in sheik's clothing looks to me like he's moving right in. And what can you do about it—have your hamburger hound bite him?"

DUKE probably thought Eddie said it. Or perhaps he didn't like Max on general principles. Anyway he did bite Max rather tentatively in the calf of his expensive slacks. Max got to his feet in surprised anger and aimed a terrific kick at the dog. He missed but Duke didn't when he sprang for Max's arm and the man and dog rolled to the sand in a snarling, cursing tangle which looked as if someone might get hurt.

"Stop it, Duke," shouted Eddie. "Come here, you misguided son of a slob-sided sea beast! Come here and lie down!"

That was familiar language to Duke and he reluctantly disengaged himself from his freshly made enemy and slunk to Eddie's feet. Max picked himself up and started toward the dog. A blasphemous growling threat in canine language illustrated by a display of beautifully matched dentures stopped Max for a revision of plans. Then the girl spoke:

"Don't touch Duke!"

Max turned back to find his recent patient trying to get up.

"I won't hurt your little pet," he said soothingly. "And you mustn't move around yet on your own power, baby. You've been kind of drowned lately. It's lucky I came along. I've been workin' on you for half an hour." Max didn't want there to be any mistake when it came to assigning credits. He was willing to bear the burden of them all.

When he talked to the girl Max's voice had a high sweet quality totally at variance with his appearance. Very likely when the gentler emotions took possession of him, adenoids got in the way and he had to talk through them.

Margie Lou was reassembling her faculties.

She looked at Max with puzzled uncertainty. "You don't look the way I thought you did. Maybe I was dreaming."

Looking Backward

Forty Years Ago

William Curran for several weeks has been at Nelson, Neb., in closing out an extensive stock of general merchandise.

James G. Russell disposed of his tailoring business at 109 East Second street to Otto A. Holst and soon will leave for San Diego, Calif., to join his wife and children now located there.

F. E .Gibbons, manager of the Sedalia offices of the Western Union Telegraph company, received notice to begin continuous service day, night and Sunday.

R. C. Combs, western dairy agent for the Miskle Plate fast freight lines, has rented his 300-acre farm near Monticello, Ark., for a term of one year.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hicks, Jr., who have been residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Phipps, since destruction of their home by fire, moved into their new home, 30 South Monteau avenue, which was recently completed.

Most large lumber and paper companies in the United States have placed their timber resources under management which will yield a continuous growth of trees.

The Doctor Says—

Exercise Extreme Caution When Using Cleaning Fluids

By EWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Recently still another report has appeared in a medical journal about poisoning from carbon tetrachloride. This is a potent chemical which is contained in some cleaning fluids.

The report dealt with some 12 cases admitted to the Marine Hospital in Staten Island, New York. Two of the seamen involved had been cleaning clothes with carbon tetrachloride 12 hours before the development of their symptoms of nausea, vomiting and diarrhea. Another man had been painting a room in his house, using carbon tetrachloride to thin the paint.

In another study of this subject the following statement was made: "Dry cleaning fluids and stain removers are very common household poisons . . . cases of poisoning result both from the inhalation of vapors as well as from swallowing. Some time ago we examined the body of a woman who had cleaned a dress with carbon tetrachloride in the bathroom, a small space without ventilation; she succumbed to the fumes of this compound."

Now this is a serious situation and many people are not sufficiently aware of the hazards which may come from the careless handling of cleaning fluids containing carbon tetrachlorides or other dangerous chemicals. Many fluids contain benzol or methyl alcohol which are also dangerous when either swallowed or when their fumes are inhaled.

Some of the cleaning fluids, while they do not contain poisonous chemicals, may catch fire easily. It has been reported that about 200 people are killed and 1000 seriously injured every year from burns caused by using inflammable cleaning solutions.

Work Out-of-Doors

These cleaning fluids are perfectly safe if used with intelligent care. But more caution is needed. In order to avoid the danger from fumes from those solutions which contain poisonous chemicals, cleaning jobs should be done out-of-doors where the fumes can quickly escape.

It has been recommended also that cleaning with inflammable fluids should be done on moist, cloudy days, and that the container of the fluid should be kept on the ground in order to avoid any sparks from static electricity.

It seems obvious that a person using a cleaning fluid which might possibly catch fire, should also be extremely careful not to light matches nor to smoke anywhere near the fluid.

FOR SEDALIA'S GIGANTIC TWO-MILE

CHRISTMAS PARADE

To Be Held Friday Afternoon, December 1st, at 2:00 O'clock

Come to the biggest Christmas parade ever staged in Central Missouri! The Sedalia Junior Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with Sedalia merchants and other organizations has planned a parade that will be two miles long. There will be dozens of glittering Christmas floats and Christmas music furnished by many marching bands from all over the Central Missouri area.

Of course, Old Saint Nick himself will lead the parade in person! This will be the first public appearance of this genial gentleman in Sedalia and he'll be looking forward to greeting all the boys and girls as well as mothers and fathers of this section.

Why not make a party of it for the whole family? Bring them to town and downtown for the big parade and a tour of Sedalia stores to see all the exciting, fascinating Christmas wonderland of gifts and toys!

SHOP FRIDAY NIGHT 'TIL 9!

Sedalia stores will remain open until 9 o'clock Friday night following the Christmas parade for your Christmas shopping.

Christmas shopping is fun . . . especially when you do yours early! To help you, Sedalia stores will remain open Friday night following the parade until 9:00 o'clock.

Take advantage of this extra shopping opportunity and make your selections while stocks are largest. Sales clerks will be able to give you their alert, undivided attention to help you solve your knottiest problems.

So, come on down Friday! Grab up your Christmas list and take advantage of brimming shelves, counters and racks.

'Mad Woman' Goes to Israel

TEL AVIV—(AP)— Gireaudoux' "Mad Woman of Chaillot" is now being performed by the Hebrew Worker's theatre "Ohel" in Tel Aviv. Excerpts were broadcast. The play, one critic wrote, "had been confusing audiences in Europe and America for several years and will probably confuse Israel audiences as well . . . "

Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol Illustrated by Walt Scott

Weak with fright, Scrooge climbed into bed as soon as Marley's ghost had fled.

But Scrooge had slept hardly a wink before he was awakened by a strange apparition. "Who are you?" gasped Scrooge. "I am the ghost of Christmas Past---your past," said the visitor.

"Rise and walk with me!" commanded the Ghost of Christmas Past. Reluctantly, Scrooge obeyed.

ADMINISTRATION'S PROFIT PICTURE—The proposed new four billion dollar excess profits tax being presented by the administration is expected to liven up the "lame duck" session of Congress. The Newschart above shows corporation profits from 1936 to 1950 before and after taxes. Estimate for 1950 under the present tax set-up shows corporations are expected to make 37 billion dollars profit, of which 15 billion would go for taxes. Figures on Newschart are from statement made by Treasury Secretary Snyder before the House Ways and Means Committee.

Guardsmen Patrol Business District

Ohio National Guardsmen, bearing loaded carbine and revolvers, march to their patrol posts in Cleveland's central business district. "Shoot to kill," was the order issued by Police Deputy Inspector James E. McArthur to police and guardsmen in dealing with looters. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Rescued in Hotel Fire

A fireman rescues an unidentified woman from the fourth floor of the Tower hotel in Minneapolis, Minn. where four persons died and six were injured in a blaze. About 20 persons were saved by means of the ladders. (NEA Telephoto)

Georgetown PTA Meeting

The Georgetown Parent Teacher Association and Community club met at the school house Wednesday night, November 22.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Walter Alexander. A radio skit was presented by Mrs. Lester Campbell, Mrs. J. P. Dunham, Mrs. Norman Peters, Miss Jincy Dunham, Donald Lewis and Jimmy Dunham.

Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served. The next meeting will be a Christmas program presented by the teacher, Mrs. Farris and the children of Georgetown school, Thursday night, December 21.
